REGIONAL REPORTS ON POPULAR LEGITIMACY OF UN SANCTIONS

WORLD'S TOP MOST GLOBAL POLLSTERS
--gathered at their 68th Annual Conference in 2015 at Dublin, Republic of Ireland.

The Regional Interpretation of findings are provided by local Regional Focal Persons. The Global survey of Popular Opinions on Legitimacy of UN Sanctions was conducted among 61 nations across the world. The question arises: Are there marked differences across various Geographical regions of world?

FIVE GLOBAL REGIONS:

For the purposes of reporting WIN-Gallup EOY global poll data, we have grouped the world into 5 global regions. Additionally, the entire Regional sample has been analyzed by the demographic groups of Gender, Age, Income, Education and Religious Affiliation. Please click on the region's name to get directed to information on the relevant regional scores:

Americas

Europe

Africa (Sub-Saharan)

West Asia (inclusive of MENA)

East Asia (East of India)

INTERPRETATION OF REGIONAL FINDINGS

In addition to providing tabular data, WIN Gallup Regional Experts have written short interpretations of findings from their regions, explaining how sub-regions are similar or different from each other. These short REGIONAL INTERPRETIVE REPORTS are available along with the tables (in the same document), as you click on the Region.

REGIONAL TABULATIONS:

If you click on a Region, you will find the REGIONAL TABULAR DATA after the REGIONAL INTERPRETIVE REPORTS on opinions about Sanctions under 6 conditions which call for such sanctions (described for convenience as Sanctions type #1-6).

REGIONAL CONTACT PERSON:

The Authors of the Regional Reports are listed at the end of each region's document. You can approach them or anyone from our Global Spokespersons for further details or queries. Some contact details are given at the end of the document, for contacts for specific countries from your or other regions please refer to the Methodology and Contact Sheet (click for details).
