

Public Opinion in Pakistan in the Year 2009 VS 2017

WOMEN Others

Role of Women in Decision Making: In 8 years, 5% increase in the proportion of Pakistanis who believe women opinion should be considered while making decisions about land/ property. GALLUP & GILANI PAKISTAN

Islamabad, April 20, 2017

According to a Gallup & Gilani Pakistan National Survey conducted in the year 2009 (8 years ago) respondents were asked, “Do you think women should be involved in making decisions about land/ property or not?” In response to this question, 55% said that women should be involved in making decisions about land/ property, while 45% said otherwise.

Comparative Picture: The question was asked again in 2017 to enable a concrete comparison. In 2017, 60% said that women should be involved in making decisions about land/ property, while 39% said otherwise and 1% did not wish to respond.

According to public opinion, there has been a 5% increase in the proportion of Pakistanis who believe women should be involved in making decisions about land/ property and a 6% decrease in the proportion of Pakistanis who believe women should not be involved in making decisions about land/ property.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision making in Pakistan.

Question: “Do you think women should be involved in making decisions about land/ property or not?”

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan and is Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: ‘Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 35 years). During this time millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan’s History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues. For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk.’
