

February 2013

Gilani Weekly Poll

CYBERLETTER

Week 109

February 08th, 2013 - February 15th, 2013

GALLUP
PAKISTAN
Affiliated with Gallup International

World Leaders in Marketing Research & Consultancy

www.gallup.com.pk

www.gallup-international.com

FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Reader,

Gilani Research Team now brings to you a collection of daily polls releases in the form of a weekly digest, which gives you the opportunity to read opinions of the Pakistani public on various socio-political issues. We hope it will be of interest to you and your readers. If you have any further questions in this regard, please feel free to contact us.

Ms. Fatima Idrees

Group Manager

E-mail: fatima.idrees@gilanifoundation.com

Please send all correspondence to:

fatima.idrees@gilanifoundation.com

Keep Updated

Cyberletter © For more on Gallup International see www.gallup-international.com. If for any reason you wish to unsubscribe please send an email to

fatima.idrees@gilanifoundation.com

IN THIS ISSUE

Majority (89%) of Pakistanis think education can stop a person from going towards...

6

76% of Pakistanis would prefer that their daughters study in an all-girls school...

7

47% of Pakistanis think girls and boys are equally wise, 34% think girls are wiser...

8

76% of Pakistanis think an educated person has a better chance of choosing better...

9

66% of Pakistanis think an educated person can be a better citizen...

10

OPINION POLLS - HIGHLIGHTS

Gilani Poll/Gallup Pakistan

February 11, 2013

Majority of Pakistanis think education can stop a person from going towards religious extremism.

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, Majority (89%) of Pakistanis think education can stop a person from going towards religious extremism.

89%

CLICK FOR DETAILS »

Gilani Poll/Gallup Pakistan

February 12, 2013

76% of Pakistanis would prefer that their daughters study in an all-girls school.

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, 76% of Pakistanis would prefer that their daughters study in an all-girls school.

76%

CLICK FOR DETAILS »

OPINION POLLS - HIGHLIGHTS

Gilani Poll/Gallup Pakistan

February 13, 2013

47% of Pakistanis think girls and boys are equally wise,
34% think girls are wiser.

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, 47% of Pakistanis think girls and boys are equally wise, 34% think girls are wiser.

47%

CLICK FOR DETAILS »

Gilani Poll/Gallup Pakistan

February 14, 2013

76% of Pakistanis think an educated person has a better chance of choosing better leaders to govern
the country.

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, 76% of Pakistanis think an educated person has a better chance of choosing better leaders to govern the country.

76%

CLICK FOR DETAILS »

OPINION POLLS - HIGHLIGHTS

Gilani Poll/Gallup Pakistan

February 15, 2013

66% of Pakistanis think an educated person can be a better citizen.

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, 66% of Pakistanis think an educated person can be a better citizen.

66%

CLICK FOR DETAILS »

“

Majority (89%) of Pakistanis think education can stop a person from going towards religious extremism.

”

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, Majority (89%) of Pakistanis think education can stop a person from going towards religious extremism.

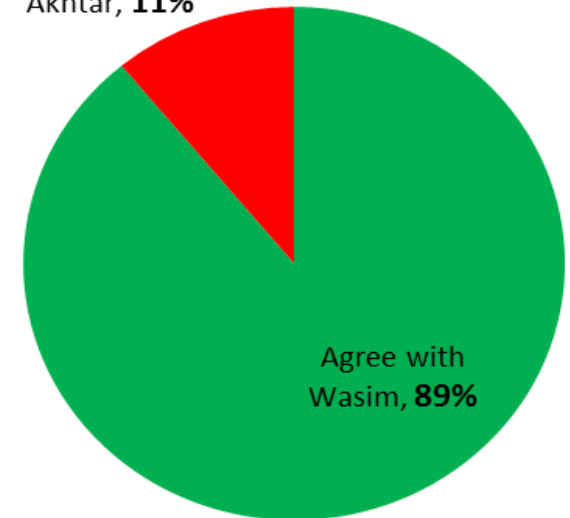

A nationally representative sample of men and women from across the four provinces was asked “Wasim believes education can stop a person from going towards religious extremism, whereas Akhtar believes education cannot influence this. Do you agree with Wasim or Akhtar?” Responding to this, 89% of Pakistanis said they agreed with Wasim and 11% said they agreed with Akhtar. These results are from Gallup Pakistan’s study on “Understanding Pakistan’s Educational Landscape.”

Bilal Ijaz Gilani, Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan comments “these findings are yet another proof that prospects for education have become very promising and education is a high priority for Pakistanis.”

The study was released by Gilani foundation and carried out by Gallup Pakistan, the Pakistani affiliate of Gallup International. The recent survey was carried out among a sample of 2640 men and women in rural and urban areas of all four provinces of the country, during January 20, 2013 – January 27, 2013. Error margin is estimated to be approximately $\pm 2-3$ per cent at 95% confidence level.

Agree with Akhtar, 11%

Agree with Wasim, 89%

Source: Gallup and Gilani Surveys
the Pakistani Affiliate of Gallup International Association
www.gallup.com.pk

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, 76% of Pakistanis would prefer that their daughters study in an all-girls school.

A nationally representative sample of men and women from across the four provinces was asked “Imagine that the standard and expenses are the same for both, then would you prefer to send your daughter to a coeducation or all-girls school?” Responding to this, 76% said ‘all-girls’ school and 21% said ‘co-education’ school. However, 3% did not give a response.

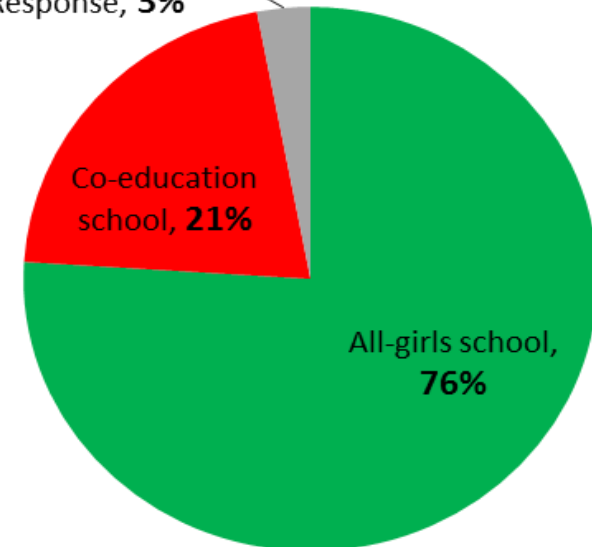

76% of Pakistanis would prefer that their daughters study in an all-girls school.

The study was released by Gilani foundation and carried out by Gallup Pakistan, the Pakistani affiliate of Gallup International. The recent survey was carried out among a sample of 2732 men and women in rural and urban areas of all four provinces of the country, during January 27, 2013 – February 03, 2013. Error margin is estimated to be approximately $\pm 2-3$ per cent at 95% confidence level.

Don't Know/No Response, 3%

Source: Gallup and Gilani Surveys
the Pakistani Affiliate of Gallup International Association
www.gallup.com.pk

“

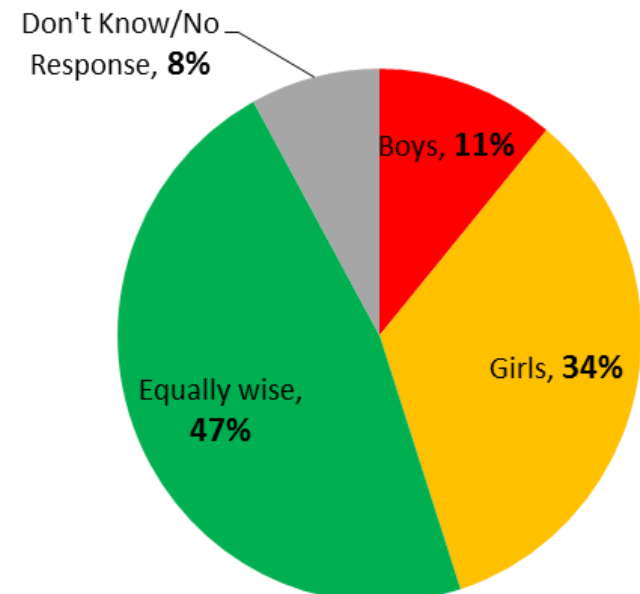

47% of Pakistanis think girls and boys are equally wise, 34% think girls are wiser.

”

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, 47% of Pakistanis think girls and boys are equally wise, 34% think girls are wiser.

A nationally representative sample of men and women from across the four provinces was asked “In your view, amongst boys and girls studying in the same class, who is wiser?” Responding to this, 47% said they are equally wise, 34% said girls are wiser and 11% said boys are wiser. However, 8% did not give a response.

The study was released by Gilani foundation and carried out by Gallup Pakistan, the Pakistani affiliate of Gallup International. The recent survey was carried out among a sample of 2732 men and women in rural and urban areas of all four provinces of the country, during January 27, 2013 – February 03, 2013. Error margin is estimated to be approximately $\pm 2-3$ per cent at 95% confidence level.

Source: Gallup and Gilani Surveys
the Pakistani Affiliate of Gallup International Association
www.gallup.com.pk

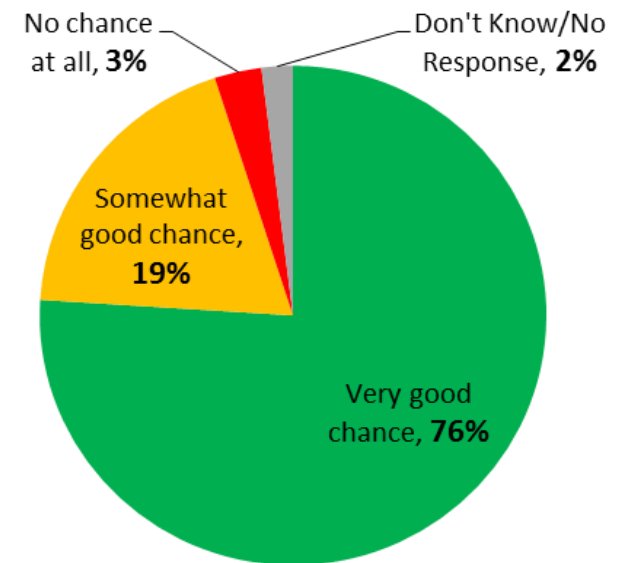

“ 76% of Pakistanis think an educated person has a better chance of choosing better leaders to govern the country. ”

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, 76% of Pakistanis think an educated person has a better chance of choosing better leaders to govern the country.

A nationally representative sample of men and women from across the four provinces was asked “Suppose Aslam and Wasim are two friends. Aslam is illiterate and Wasim is educated. In your view, what are the chances that Wasim can choose better leaders to govern the country than Aslam?” Responding to this, 76% think there is a very good chance, 19% think there is somewhat good chance and 3% think there is no chance at all. However, 2% did not give a response.

The study was released by Gilani foundation and carried out by Gallup Pakistan, the Pakistani affiliate of Gallup International. The recent survey was carried out among a sample of 2732 men and women in rural and urban areas of all four provinces of the country, during January 27, 2013 – February 03, 2013. Error margin is estimated to be approximately $\pm 2-3$ per cent at 95% confidence level.

Source: Gallup and Gilani Surveys
the Pakistani Affiliate of Gallup International Association
www.gallup.com.pk

“

66% of Pakistanis think an educated person can be a better citizen.

”

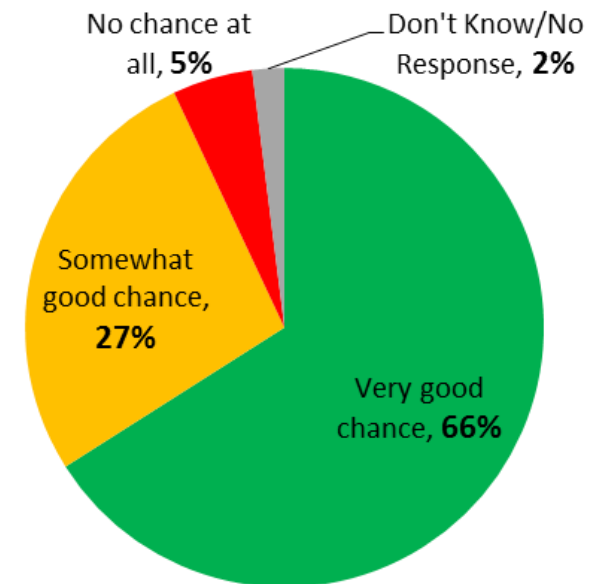

*Gilani Poll/Gallup Pakistan
Islamabad - February 15, 2013*

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, 66% of Pakistanis think an educated person can be a better citizen.

A nationally representative sample of men and women from across the four provinces was asked “Suppose Aslam and Wasim are two friends. Aslam is illiterate and Wasim is educated. In your view, what are the chances that Wasim can be a better citizen than Aslam?” Responding to this, 66% think there is a very good chance, 27% think there is somewhat good chance and 5% think there is no chance at all. However, 2% did not give a response.

The study was released by Gilani foundation and carried out by Gallup Pakistan, the Pakistani affiliate of Gallup International. The recent survey was carried out among a sample of 2732 men and women in rural and urban areas of all four provinces of the country, during January 27, 2013 – February 03, 2013. Error margin is estimated to be approximately $\pm 2-3$ per cent at 95% confidence level.

Source: Gallup and Gilani Surveys
the Pakistani Affiliate of Gallup International Association
www.gallup.com.pk

February 2013 Edition:

Produced by: Gallup Pakistan jointly with Gilani Research Foundation

Legal Information & Disclaimer

Copyright

The Report and its content are protected by copyright. By accessing the Report you agree that this is solely for personal use. Any distribution, use, photocopy of the Report is barred. The buyer of the Report must not reproduce, frame (by whatever means), link to or otherwise use any of the material on the site without first obtaining the written permission of Gallup Pakistan.

Disclaimer

Gallup Pakistan is not related to Gallup Inc. headquartered in Washington D.C. USA. We require that our surveys be credited fully as Gallup Pakistan (not Gallup or Gallup Poll). We disclaim any responsibility for surveys pertaining to Pakistani public opinion except those carried out by Gallup Pakistan, the Pakistani affiliate of Gallup International Association. For details on Gallup International Association see website: www.gallup-international.com

IN NO EVENT SHALL Gallup Pakistan OR ITS AGENTS OR OFFICERS BE LIABLE FOR ANY DAMAGES WHATSOEVER (INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF PROFITS, BUSINESS INTERRUPTION) ARISING OUT OF THE USE OF OR INABILITY TO USE THE MATERIALS.

As a user of this report, you acknowledge and agree that any reliance upon, or use of any information made available through this Report shall be entirely at your own risk. Subject to any implied terms which cannot be excluded by law, Gallup Pakistan and its related entities (including any directors, officers, employees and agents) shall not be liable for any loss or damage, whether direct or indirect, and however caused, to any person arising from the use of (or reliance upon) information provided on and made available through this Report.

Please send all correspondence to:

Email: fatima.idress@gilanifoundation.com

Join us to stay updated

