Majority Pakistanis (52 %) are of the opinion that the local government system will not bring about any difference in people's lives. GILANI RESEARCH FOUNDATION (GRF POLL)

Islamabad, May 18, 2016

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, 52% Pakistanis feel that the local government system will not be able to bring about any change, positive or otherwise, in people's lives.

A nationally representative sample of men and women from across the four provinces was asked, "Do you think that the local government system will reduce the problems in people's lives, increase the problems in their lives or would there be no difference?" In response to this question, 40% Pakistanis said that there will be a reduction in the problems of people while 7% said that there will be a further increase in people's problems. Meanwhile, 52% Pakistanis said that local governments will not bring about any difference in people's lives.

Question: "Do you think that the local government system will reduce the problems in people's lives, increase the problems in their lives or would there be no difference?"
