(2010-2016) 16% decrease in the proportion of people who visit a mausoleum of a Pir or Buzurg to express devotion. GILANI POLL/GALLUP PAKISTAN

Islamabad, October 27, 2016

According to a Gallup Pakistan National Survey conducted in the year 2010 (6 years ago) respondents were asked, “Why do you or other people like you go visit the mausoleum of a Pir or Buzurg?” To this, 64% said to express devotion, 11% said for spiritual treatment, 20% said so that their prayers are fulfilled, 14% said so that their vow (mannat) is fulfilled, 2% said to eat from the langar. 2% did not respond.

Comparative Picture: The question was asked again in 2016 to enable a concrete comparison. In 2016, 48% said to express devotion, 16% said for spiritual treatment, 22% said so that their prayers are fulfilled, 9% said so that their vow (mannat) is fulfilled, 4% said to eat from the langar. 1% did not respond.

According to public opinion, there has been a 16% decrease in the proportion of people who visit a mausoleum to express devotion, a 5% increase in the proportion of people who go for spiritual treatment, a 2% increase in the proportion of people who go so that their prayers are fulfilled, a 5% decrease in the proportion of people who go so that their vow (mannat) is fulfilled and a 2% increase in the proportion of people who go to eat from the langar.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision making in Pakistan.
