

Public Opinion in Pakistan in the Year 1997

ECONOMY General

Comparing PML-N government in 1997 with current: 13% increase in the proportion of Pakistanis who think Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif will not be successful in improving the economic conditions of the country. GILANI POLL/GALLUP PAKISTAN

Islamabad, November 8, 2016

According to a Gallup Pakistan National Survey conducted in the year 1997 (19 years ago) respondents were asked, “In your opinion, will Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif be successful in improving the economic conditions of the country?” To this, 39% said he will be successful, 27% said he will be unsuccessful, 34% did not know or did not wish to respond.

Comparative Picture: The question was asked again in 2016 to enable a concrete comparison. In 2016, 42% said he will be successful, 40% said he will be unsuccessful, 18% did not know or did not wish to respond.

According to public opinion, there has been a 3% increase in the proportion of people who think Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif will be successful in improving the economic conditions of the country, whereas there has been a 13% increase in the proportion of people who think the Prime Minister will not be successful in improving the economic conditions of the country.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision making in Pakistan.

Question: “In your opinion, will Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif be successful in improving the economic conditions of the country?”
