Defence Day

Majority Pakistanis (50%) believe that Defence Day was celebrated with more enthusiasm this year compared to previous years. (GRF POLL)

Islamabad, December 20, 2016

According to a Gilani Research Foundation Survey carried out by Gallup Pakistan, majority Pakistanis (50%) believe that Defence Day was celebrated with more enthusiasm this year compared to previous years.

A nationally representative sample of men and women from across the four provinces was asked, “Some people think that Defence Day was celebrated with more enthusiasm this year compared to the previous two three years. Others say that there was no difference. In your opinion was Defence Day celebrated with more enthusiasm or not?” In response to this question, 50% said with more enthusiasm, 17% said less than before, 21% said there was no difference. 12% did not know or did not wish to respond.

Question: “Some people think that Defence Day was celebrated with more enthusiasm this year compared to the previous two three years. Others say that there was no difference. In your opinion was Defence Day celebrated with more enthusiasm or not?”
