Islamabad, May 15, 2018

According to a Gallup & Gilani Pakistan National Survey conducted in the year 2011 (7 years ago) respondents in Pakistan were asked “Has the rate of theft and street crimes in your area increased, decreased, or remained the same since last year?” In response to this question, 36% said theft and street crimes have increased, 22% said they have decreased and 42% said they have remained the same.

Comparative Picture: The question was asked again in 2018 to enable a concrete comparison. In 2018, 16% said theft and street crimes have increased, 40% said they have decreased and 44% said they have remained the same in their area.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision making in Pakistan.

The findings are available since 2009 periodically and the graph below shows how the public opinion has fluctuated over the years.

Question: “Has the rate of theft and street crimes in your area increased, decreased, or remained the same since last year?”

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan and is Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: ‘Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 35 years). During this time millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan’s History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues. For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk.’
