Over 80% of the Pakistanis continue to believe that there should be separate transport services for women and children (GALLUP & GILANI PAKISTAN POLL)

Islamabad, September 26, 2019

In a Gallup & Gilani Pakistan National Survey conducted in the year 2003, respondents were asked “Do you think there should be separate transport services for women and students?” In response, 87% said yes while 12% did not agree.

Comparative Picture: This question was asked again in 2015 to enable a comparison to be made across the years. In 2015, 83% said yes while 16% did not agree.

Overall there has been a decrease of 4% in the proportion of Pakistanis who believe that there should be separate transport services for women and children.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision making in Pakistan.

Gallup Pakistan is polling the question in year 2019 and will share the results.

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan and is Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: ‘Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 40 years). During this time millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan’s History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues. For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk.
