Islamabad, October 13, 2020

According to the World Values Survey conducted between the year 1994-1998, respondents were asked "Would you not like having people of different race as your neighbors?" In response 6% said yes.

Comparative Picture: The question was asked again between 2017-2019 during Wave 7 of the World Values Survey to enable a comparison across the years. According to the 2019 results, 1 in 4 Pakistanis said they would not like to have a neighbor of different race.

Global Results: Globally, 16% respondents do not want a neighbor of a different race.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision making in Pakistan.

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan and is Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: 'Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 40 years). During this time millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan's History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues.' For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk
