Public Opinion in Pakistan Since Year 1994

WORLD VALUES SURVEY

Social Capital, Trust & Organizational Membership

Over the past two decades, 20 % increase in proportion of Pakistanis who have faith in political parties (World Values Survey & Gallup & Gilani Pakistan)

Islamabad, January 26, 2021

According to the World Values Survey conducted between the year 2000-2004, respondents were asked “Could you tell me how much confidence you have in political parties: is it a great deal of confidence, quite a lot of confidence, not very much confidence or none at all?” In response 11% said ‘a great deal’, 13% said ‘quite a lot’, 30% said not very much, 31% said ‘none at all’ and 15% did not know/did not respond.

Comparative Picture: The question was asked again between 2017-2020 during Wave 7 of the World Values Survey to enable a comparison across the years. According to the 2020 results, 13% said ‘a great deal’, 31% said ‘quite a lot’, 19% said ‘not very much’ and 34% said ‘none at all.’

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision making in Pakistan.

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan and is Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: ‘Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 40 years). During this time millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan’s History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues.’ For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk
