Pakistan ranks the highest in a 24-country poll in terms of willingness to fight for the country, with a sweeping 96% of Pakistanis saying they are willing to fight for Pakistan: Gallup Pakistan and WIN World Survey report released

(Islamabad), June 20, 2022

According to a Gallup Pakistan Survey in Pakistan (and similar surveys done by Worldwide Independent Network of Market Research (WIN) across the world), Pakistan ranks the highest in a 24-country poll in terms of willingness to fight for the country, with a sweeping 96% of Pakistanis saying they are willing to fight for Pakistan.

These findings emerge from an international survey conducted across the globe by The Worldwide Independent Network of Market Research (WIN) - a global network conducting market research and opinion polls in every continent. WIN International has published the Annual WIN World Survey (WWS – 2021), exploring the views and beliefs of 19,422 individuals, among citizens from 24 countries across the globe. The fieldwork for Pakistan was conducted between 5th to 8th April 2022 and the sample size was 500 individuals.

The international press release with the report can be accessed here.

A nationally representative sample of adult men and women from across the world were asked the following question, “If there were a war that involved your country would you be willing to fight for your country?” In response to this question in Pakistan, 96% said yes, 3% said no and 1% didn’t know or gave no response.
