Over the last 31 years, there has been a 34% increase in the proportion of people who believe that the standard of Government Hospitals is good: Gallup & Gilani Pakistan History Project

(Islamabad), March 31st, 2023

In a Gallup & Gilani Pakistan National Survey conducted in the year 1991, a representative sample of adult men and women from across Pakistan was asked the following question, “What in your view is the standard of Government Hospitals?” In response to this question, 10% said good, 63% said bad, 21% said that they believed that the standard of government hospitals was average.

Comparative Picture: This question was asked again in 2022 to allow a comparison to be made across the years. In 2022, 44% said that the standard of government hospitals was good, 22% said it was bad while 32% said they believed it was average.

Trend Analysis: From 1991 to 2022, there has been a 34% increase in the proportion of people who think that the standard of government hospitals is good. The percentage of people in 2022 who believe that the standard of government hospitals was good, was the highest that has ever been recorded.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision-making in Pakistan.

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan, and the Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: “Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 40 years). During this time, millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan's History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues". For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk
