From 2001 to 2022, there has been a 12% increase in the proportion of people who believe that it is very important for parents to get their children immunized: Gallup & Gilani Pakistan History Project

(Islamabad), June 21st, 2022

In a Gallup & Gilani Pakistan National Survey conducted in the year 2001, a representative sample of adult men and women from across Pakistan was asked the following question, “How important do you think it is for the parents to get their children immunized?” In response to this question, 82% said it was very important while 16% said that it was somewhat important, and 2% stated it was not at all important.

Comparative Picture: This question was asked again in 2022 to allow a comparison to be made across the years. In 2022, 94% said that it was very important for parents to get their children immunized while 3% said that it was somewhat important. 1% stated it was not at all important, and 2% responded that they did not know.

Trend Analysis: From 2001 to 2022, there has been a 12% increase in the proportion of people who believe that it is very important for parents to get their children immunized.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision-making in Pakistan.

Question: “How important do you think it for the parents to get their children immunized?”

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan, and the Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: “Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 40 years). During this time, millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan’s History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues”. For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk
