Gallup & Gilani Pakistan History Project

(Islamabad) September 19th, 2023

In a Gallup & Gilani Pakistan National Survey conducted in the year 2016, a representative sample of adult men and women from across Pakistan was asked the following question, “Please tell me, did you purchase items for entertainment of guests on the occasion of Eid-ul-Adha this year?” In response to this question, 72% Yes, while 27% said No, and 1% either said they did not know or gave no response.

Comparative Picture: This question was asked again in 2023 to allow a comparison to be made across the years. In 2023, 35% said Yes, while 64% said No, and 1% either said they did not know or gave no response.

Trend Analysis: The proportion of people who reported purchasing items for entertainment of guests on the occasion of Eid-ul-Adha in 2023 has decreased by 37% in 2023 compared to 2008, while those that did not do so have increased by the same proportion in the same period.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision-making in Pakistan.

The study in Pakistan was conducted and released by Gilani Research Foundation and carried out by Gallup & Gilani Pakistan, the Pakistani affiliate of Gallup International. The recent survey was carried out among a sample of 929 men and women across urban and rural areas of all four provinces of the country, conducted during 07 July to 16 July, 2023. The error margin is estimated to be approximately $\pm 3-5$ percent at the 95% confidence level. The methodology used for data collection was telephonic surveys (CATI).

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan, and the Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: “Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 40 years). During this time, millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan’s History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues”. For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk
