Between 2005 and 2018, there was a 4% decline in the proportion of women (aged 15-49 years) in Pakistan who reported having given birth. Gallup Pakistan analysis using PSLM data series

(Islamabad), December 5th, 2023

In a Pakistan Social and Living Standards Measurement (PSLM) Survey conducted in the year 2005-06 and subsequently in years 2007-08, 2011-12, 2013-14, and 2018-19, a representative sample of Pakistani women between the ages of 15-49 years from across the country were assessed regarding their pre- and post-natal healthcare. In response to the question “Have you ever given birth?”, in year 2005-06, overall, 45% Pakistani women responded “Yes”. The affirmative response was highest in KP at 49%, followed by 45% in Sindh, 44% in Punjab and 43% in Balochistan.

Comparative Picture: In 2018-19, overall, 41% responded “Yes”, while the affirmative response now was highest in Balochistan at 49%, followed by 46% in KP, 40% in Sindh and 38% in Punjab.

Trend Analysis: The proportion of Pakistani women between the ages of 15-49 years that reported having given birth decreased by 4% on a national level between 2005-06 and 2018-19. At the provincial level, an increase was only observed in Balochistan with 6%, all other provinces experienced a decrease with 6% in Punjab, 5% in Sindh, and 3% in KP in the same time period.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision-making in Pakistan.

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan, and the Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: “Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 40 years). During this time, millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan’s History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues”. For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk
