Gallup Pakistan analysis using PSLM data series

(Islamabad), December 12th, 2023

In a Pakistan Social and Living Standards Measurement (PSLM) Survey conducted in the year 2005-06 and subsequently in years 2007-08, 2011-12, 2013-14, and 2018-19, a representative sample of Pakistani mothers between the ages of 15-49 years from across the country were assessed regarding their prenatal and postnatal healthcare. In response to the question “Where did you normally receive this (prenatal) care?”, in year 2005-06, overall, 48.2% of respondents said at “Private hospitals/clinics”, 36.8% said at “Government hospitals/clinics”, 12% said at Home (combined response) while 1.6% said “Other”.

Comparative Picture: In 2018-19, overall, 58% of respondents said at “Private hospitals/clinics”, 32.8% said at “Government hospitals/clinics”, 8.6% said at Home (combined response) while 0.6% said “Other”.

Trend Analysis: The proportion of Pakistani mothers between the ages of 15-49 years that reported having received their prenatal care at Private hospitals and clinics increased by 9.8% on a national level between 2005-06 and 2018-19, those receiving it at Government hospitals and clinics decreased by 4%, those receiving it at Home (combined response) decreased by 1.4%, and those having reported receiving it at Other places also decreased by 1% during the same time period.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision-making in Pakistan.

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan, and the Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: “Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 40 years). During this time, millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan’s History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues”. For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk
