11% fewer Pakistanis in 2023, disagree that the general state of extreme fear and panic at the time, lead to the violence during the Partition in 1947

Gallup & Gilani Pakistan History Project

(Islamabad), 16th February, 2024

In a Gallup & Gilani Pakistan National Survey conducted in the year 2015, a representative sample of adult men and women from across Pakistan was asked the following question, “To what extent do you agree or disagree with the view that ‘At that time, in a state of extreme fear and panic, every man was ready to kill the other’, which was a reason for the violence during the Partition in 1947?” In response to this question, 24% said for ‘Completely agree’, 35% said ‘Somewhat agree’, 13% said ‘Disagree’, 16% said ‘Somewhat disagree’, and 12% said they did not know or refused to respond.

Comparative Picture: This question was asked again in 2023 to allow a comparison to be made across the years. In 2023, 43% said for ‘Completely agree’, 13% said ‘Somewhat agree’, 11% said ‘Disagree’, 7% said ‘Somewhat disagree’, and 26% said they did not know or refused to respond.

Trend Analysis: Between 2015 and 2023 opinions on the view that ‘At that time, in a state of extreme fear and panic, every man was ready to kill the other’ which led to much of the violence that took place during the Partition of 1947 shifted slightly, with 19% more completely agreeing, 22% less somewhat agreeing, 2% less disagreeing, and 9% less somewhat disagreeing. While those that did not know or refused to respond increased by 14%.

This press release has been made as part of the Gallup Pakistan History Project which aims to release historical empirical polling data to wider audiences. The objective is to sustain and encourage empirical decision-making in Pakistan.

The study in Pakistan was conducted and released by Gilani Research Foundation and carried out by Gallup & Gilani Pakistan, the Pakistani affiliate of Gallup International. The recent survey was carried out among a sample of 1,303 men and women in urban and rural areas of all four provinces of the country, conducted during 17th October – 7th November 2023. The error margin is estimated to be approximately $\pm 2-3$ percent at the 95% confidence level. The methodology used for data collection was telephonic surveys (CATI).

Aim and Rationale for Gallup Pakistan History Project

Bilal I Gilani, who is Executive Director at Gallup Pakistan, and the Director of Gallup Pakistan History Project explains the aim of the Project as follows: "Gallup Pakistan has been polling in Pakistan since 1979 (over 40 years). During this time, millions of Pakistanis have been surveyed by over a thousand interviewers of Gallup. In 2014, Gallup Pakistan has decided to release historical Public Opinion data and this Press Release is part of Gallup Pakistan's History Project. This endeavor is dedicated to all those who hope for a more empirical understanding of Pakistani Issues". For more information about Gallup History Project, please contact caf@gallup.com.pk
