According to a Gallup & Gilani Pakistan survey, Pakistanis show overwhelming support for China — 61% express favorable opinion in the past year, reflecting a strong bilateral friendship.

A nationally representative sample of adult men and women across the country was asked the question, “What is your overall opinion about the following countries in the past year: good, bad, neither good nor bad? - China?”. In response, 61% of respondents described their view as "good," while 19% expressed a "bad" opinion. Additionally, 14% held a neutral stance, indicating neither good nor a bad opinion, and a small proportion, 6%, did not respond.

These findings underscore the deep-rooted nature of the Pak-China relationship and serve as a clear indicator that the friendship between the two countries remains long-standing, resilient, and unshakable in the eyes of the Pakistani public.
