62% Pakistanis remain neutral about Imran Khan's decision to replace Ali Amin Gandapur with a new Chief Minister (Gallup & Gilani Survey)

(Islamabad), 2nd December 2025

According to a survey conducted by Gallup & Gilani Pakistan, 62% of Pakistanis say they are neither happy nor unhappy about Imran Khan's decision to remove Ali Amin Gandapur and appoint a new Chief Minister in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa. Meanwhile, 29% say they are happy with the decision, and 9% say they are unhappy.

A nationally representative sample of Pakistanis was asked the following question: “Some people are happy that Imran Khan removed Ali Amin Gandapur and appointed a new Chief Minister, while others are unhappy about it. Please tell us, are you happy, unhappy, or neither happy nor unhappy with this decision?” In response, 29% said ‘happy,’ 9% said ‘unhappy,’ and 62% said ‘neither happy nor unhappy.’

Question: Are you happy, unhappy, or neither happy nor unhappy with this decision?
