(Islamabad), 8th December November 2025

According to a survey conducted by Gallup & Gilani Pakistan, 53% of Pakistanis say they would immediately choose to relive their childhood if given the opportunity.

A nationally representative sample of Pakistanis was asked the following question: “Suppose you were given the chance to relive your childhood. Would you take that opportunity?” In response, 53% said ‘Yes, immediately,’ 6% said ‘There is some possibility,’ 37% said ‘No, I am fine now,’ and 4% said ‘DK/NR.’

The findings suggest a strong sense of nostalgia among Pakistanis, with many expressing a desire to return to childhood, while a sizable minority remains satisfied with their present life stage.
